Note: the Story probate papers are a mess: several different Storys are included and the papers are then randomly separated. The link is to a petition from Henry's father, Henry, that briefly describes his son's loss and an ongoing dispute with widow Lucretia. Other papers discuss guardianship of minor Henrietta Story which eventually went to Joseph Knowlton.

Note: Find-a-Grave incorrectly records Addison's death as 18 May 1884. There is another Joseph Orcutt in NY of the same age but he was born in NY and lived in a different county. The correct Joseph Addison Orcutt doesn't appear in any records after the 1850 census and 1853-56 probate records in Allegany County. The executor of the correct Orcutt was Amy Orcutt, either a nickname for daughter Amelia or a second wife after the 1851 death of Eliza Bingham.

Child of Citizen Joseph

1.10a.2b.2.2a.1 Joseph Luther Bingham

- m.1: Polly Warner

Note: Ancestry and Find-a-Grave believe that Joseph Luther and Polly were divorced 1850-54 but the only support I see for this are the 1855 NY census and 1860 federal census. In the 1855 census, the four Bingham children were living with David and Polly Gilbert and, in the 1860 census, the youngest Bingham, Eliza Jane, was using the last name Gilbert. Eleanor Gilbert, age 12, was also in the 1860 census and might have been the third Bingham daughter, Polly A. The Gilberts had a one-year old son in 1855 so the timing could work.

Polly died in 1869 and her gravestone says wife of David with maiden name Warren instead of Warner. Find-a-Grave says her middle name was Enora but Enora does not appear on the gravestone and there was a Polly E. Gilbert, wife of Brown Gilbert in multiple censuses at the same time as our Polly.

Note: very confusing. Nina E. Bingham, daughter of Frank and Mattie (Martha) married John G. Reynolds in 1882 but a Social Security claim by a son lists her maiden name as Pepper. In Franklin's will, he continually refers to his adopted daughter Lucille R___ Reynolds and makes no mention of Nina who was still alive. Nina's death cert lists parents as unknown.

Children of James

1.10a.4b.7.1.1 John James Bingham

- Add: Mar: 1850-60
- Add: Died: 1860-1880
- Add: Bur: Green-Wood Cemetery, Brooklyn NY

Note: no corresponding NYC death record so may have died elsewhere

Note: this is a very large plot (Section 77, Lot 4991) that was consolidated in 1880 with the parents, sister Josephine and family, and several Bingham, Carr, and Deering in-laws and children.

Burial: https://www.green-wood.com/burial\_results/index.php

Notes:

- The 1880 Brooklyn census cited in the Bingham book is not for the correct John and Emma Bingham couple. Rather, it fits a different John and Emma Bingham living in Brooklyn in 1865 and buried in a different Brooklyn cemetery. The 1880 John's age and birthplace (NY) better fit the 1865 John (whose birthplace was Suffolk Co NY) and the wife's maiden name of Barry is consistent between the 1865 mother-in-law and the burial. Also, the difference in age between the two Emma's is a significant 14-16 years. The correct John's burial year and place is 1880, Green-Wood while the incorrect John is 1887, Cypress Hills.

- The 1850 census is correct because John was with his parents and siblings and the 1860 census has him married and living with two siblings. He is buried with his sister Josephine.

Note: marriage record lists name as Mary J. M. Muldery and this as her first marriage. Assuming this really was her first marriage, the initial 'M' may have been for Milton. Muldery is her last name in both the marriage intentions and marriage documents. I did not find a birth record for Milton or Muldery in either MA or NH.
